Design Guidelines for the Design System

- Use a single brand color consistently across interactive elements.
- Ensure colors have good contrast for readability and accessibility.
- Maintain consistent spacing throughout the design.
- Use a single, clean, and readable typeface.
- Limit the number of font weights and styles for simplicity.
- Design reusable components for both small elements and larger elements.
- Maintain a cohesive design system across all pages and layouts.
- Follow accessibility guidelines to ensure usability for all users.
- Use a structured grid system to organize the design.

I'm Anansi Sime, a 3rd year Software Engineering student pursuing a Bachelor's at Addis Ababa institute of Technology(AAiT).Dedicated to building a strong foundation in software development, I am exploring both coursework and practical projects to refine my skills.

With a passion for problem-solving, I am currently focusing on front-end development, actively learning HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create dynamic and user-friendly applications. I'm also deeply interested in problem-solving, finding creative and efficient solutions to challenges that arise in software development.Additionally, I enjoy staying updated with the latest advancements in technology, exploring new tools and methodologies to enhance my skills and create impactfull projects.

Interests

Problem-Solving: I enjoy tackling challenging problems and finding innovative, efficient solutions through coding and logical thinking

Front-End Development: Exploring and experimenting with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to create seamless and visually appealing user interfaces.

Continuous Learning: I'm passionate about staying updated with the latest technologies and improving my skills,especially in programming and software development.

Hobbies

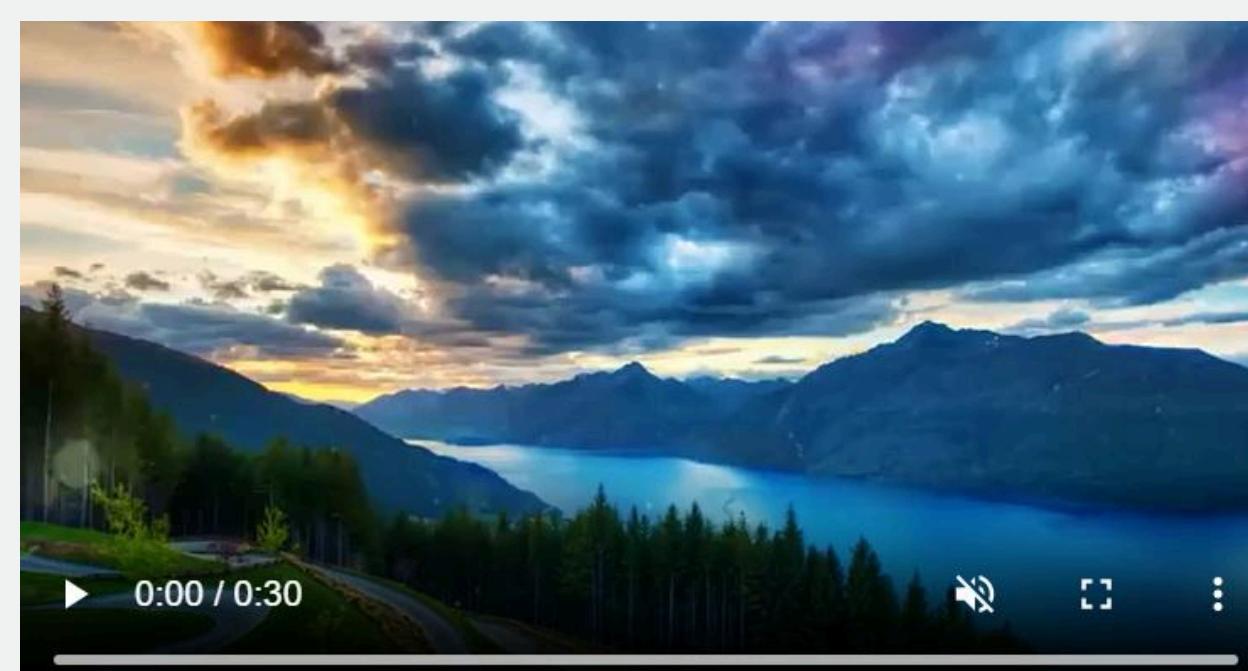

Begena

In my free time, I enjoy listening to the soothing sound of begena,a traditional Ethiopian harp. Below is an audio of begena that captures its calming tones:
